CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA. A Proclamation. By the Governor, I, Henry M. Hatfield, Governor of the State of West Virginia, pursuant to the Constitution and laws of said State, announcing to the voters of the State of West Virginia that, on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, at the general election held on that day, there will be submitted for ratification or rejection an amendment to the Constitution of said State as follows: to-wit:

Proposed Amendment.
That Section one of Article four of said Constitution as it is now is to be altered and amended so as to read as follows: "Section one. The citizens of the State, both male and female, shall be entitled to vote at all elections held within the counties in which they respectively reside; but no person who is insane or of unsound mind, or a pauper, or who is under conviction of treason, or bribery in an election, or who has not been a resident of the State for one year, and of the county in which he or she offers to vote, for sixty days next preceding such offer, shall be permitted to vote while such disability continues; but no person in the military, naval or marine service of the United States shall be deemed a resident of this State by reason of being stationed therein."

The proposed amendment is designated as "Woman's Suffrage Amendment" and the official ballot to be voted at said election will be printed the following: BALLOT ON CONSTITUTIONAL WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT. Amending Section one of Article Four. For ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment.

Against ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment. Those favoring the ratification of said amendment will vote "For Ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment" and those opposing will vote "Against Ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment."

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol, this eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and of the State the Fifty-fourth. By the Governor.

HENRY M. HATFIELD, Secretary of State.

STUART F. REED, Secretary of State.

STOUT & MERENDINO, Counsel for Plaintiff.

VS. IN CHANCERY. Lucia Derchia, Defendant.

Object of Suit. The object of this suit is to obtain a divorce from the bonds of matrimony.

And it appearing from an affidavit filed in said suit that the said defendant is a non-resident of this State, it is ordered that she do appear within one month from the date of the first publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect her interests herein.

Given under my hand this 2nd day of October, 1916.
